

Welcome to the historic Woodstock Square, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Spend a leisurely day shopping Woodstock's unique stores situated along cobblestone streets amidst the quaint charm of 19th century architecture. Afterwards, enjoy an evening of fine dining and live entertainment. Then spend the night to complete the experience of all that Woodstock has to offer!

You'll find everything from hand-crafted pottery, apparel, gifts and collectibles, toys, original fine art, antiques, gourmet foods and exquisite jewelry, restaurants, live entertainment and accommodations.

Two historic structures dominate the Woodstock Square—the Opera House and the Old Court House and Sheriff's House complex.

Old Court House Arts Center

The Romanesque-style Opera House was erected in 1889 and once served as the city hall, library and fire department. Performers who spent their early years on its stage include Orson Welles and Paul Newman. Today, the Opera House remains the cultural entertainment center of Woodstock. Plays, concerts and performances are scheduled at the Opera House throughout the year, including the nationally renowned Woodstock Mozart Festival held each summer.

Performance schedules are available at the ticket office in the Opera House lobby.

The Old Court House, a simple Italianate structure built in 1857, is similar to the Cook County Court House of 1853 that was destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire. The Sheriff's House and Jail were constructed in 1887. In 1894, Eugene Debs was held there for refusing to comply with a court injunction related to the Pullman strike. The buildings served as the McHenry County government offices until the early 1970's, when the county moved to a new, larger facility.

Presently, the Old Court House and Sheriff's House complex are home to two restaurants, an art gallery, a pottery shop and the Chester Gould-Dick Tracy Museum (honoring the creator of the famous comic strip who lived and worked in rural Woodstock for over 50 years.)

Throughout the year, the historic Woodstock Square is host to many events, festivals and fairs—from Fair Diddley, Dick Tracy Days, summer band concerts, the farmers market, Fine Art Fair, Harvestfest and Old Time Fiddlers competition to Groundhog Days—celebrating Woodstock's starring role as Punxsutawney, PA in the 1993 movie Groundhog Day.

Not to be missed is Woodstock's Victorian Christmas celebration that begins each Thanksgiving weekend. The Square glows from the thousands of miniature lights illuminating the buildings and trees for the annual Festival of Lights. Carolers stroll the streets and horse-drawn carriages transport visitors around the Square. Shopkeepers often provide refreshments while you search for that perfect gift.

We hope you'll enjoy your visit to the Woodstock Square and our community.

We're sure you'll want to visit often!
